INQUEST .- Coroner Taft held an inquest yes terday morning at a house in Church street over the body of a colored woman named Mary Tiddeman, who had died suddenly the day before without the attendance of a physician. REDUCED TO A STUMP .- London Grant, who was badly frost-bitten on Christmas eve night. while lying down drunk in the road near Gillison ville, Beaufort County, was taken to the City Hospital, where he has since been staying. Yesterday morning his-right leg was amputated a few inches below the knee, by Dr. Buist, the surgeon of the hospital, and in a few days it will be necessary to take on the left foot. These operations are rendered necessary by the gangrene which set in from the effects of the frost.

THE STRAMBHIP SEA GULE -A telegram received here yesterday s'ated that this steamship, on her passage from Baltimore for this city, had collided with a schooner near Cape Hatteras, sinking the latter. The amount of injury to the Sea Gull was not stated, nor whether she had returned to Baltimore or continued on her voyage. The Sea Gull had on board a valuable cargo for this city.

Since the above, we learn that the Sea Gull is in Hutteras Inlet, leaking badly.

THE ATLANTIC PHOSPHATE WORKS.—This company, the stock of which was taken a few months since with the most favorable prospects. having completed their establishment and placed their machinery in the most perfect working condition, are now turning out a first-class guano, which is being offered by their agents, Messrs. Pelzer, Rodgers & Co., on Brown & Co.'s wharves This article is attracting much attention, and is now going forward to planters in considerable quantities. The guano is put up in neat packages ready for shipment, and cultivators of the soil will do well to give it a trial, as it promises to be among the best of land stimulants.

THE WORKING CHRISTIAN'S CHURCH .- The Rev. Tilman R. Gaines, editor of the Working Christian, of this city, has been laboring also as missionary in the upper wards of this city for some months past, and has succeeded in consti-tuting a church for the laboring classes. The seid is quite promising and the work a noble-one. A near, plain chape is to be built on Rutiodge avenue, near Spring street, for the accomodation of this infant church and the interesting Sanday school under their charge. As the members of this charch and congregation are of the working classes and limited in worldly goods, any assistance given them in building their house of would be well bestowed. Mr. Gaines has been very successful ut other places in the State in similar enerts. Since the war he organized a church of the working people of Yorkville, and built them a handsome house of worship, much of it at his own expense. Such a work is much needed in the part of this city where he now labors. Those who wish to aid in this work can send their donations to the office of the Working Christain. No. 68 Hasel street.

THE "INFIRMARY" AT THE CONFEDERATE WIDOWS' HOME.-This is the name given to the noom set apart in the Widows' Home for the special use of the sick. It is large, convenient and well adapted to secure quiet and to permit the undivided attention so necessary to invalids. A lady of this city having occasion to visit a sick pupil at the "Home," conceived the kindly project of furnishing the Infirmary with every po and desirable convenience for a sick chamber. Others, to whom the mentioned the plan, entered heartly into it, and it has been carried out with a taste, thoughtfulness and foresight to be expeoted from the kindly consideration in which it originated. A neat and beautiful carpet has been laid upon the floor of the Infirmary; the walls have been papered and adorned with pictures; vases have been presented for the mantels, and a choice selection of books for the table; a coal grate; with utensils; stands; a couch and everything which experience suggested and limited means could procure, have been furnished as another testimonial of the interest of our people in the daughters of our soldiers. It would be gratifying to the ladies of the board, and to the lady through whom donations were re ceived, if those who so kindly contributed to this object will visit the "Home," and see for them-selves to what use their benefactions have been

UNITED STATES COURT. -The District Court was opened at 11 o'clook Saturday morning, his Honor Judge Bryan presiding.

David Brown, William Irving and Isaac Grant each pleaded guilty to the indictments against them for voting under age, and were sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

In each of these cases the property was ordered to be sold on the first sales-day in February, or some convenient sales-day thereafter, at public anction, for cash, after two weeks' notice of such sale by publication or otherwise.

The United States vs. Thomas Simmons, Alexan der Squire and Maurice Fordham, for intimidating voters. Simmons was acquitted, and, on mo tion, discharged; the other defendants were found guilty, and committed until sentence day. IN ADMIRALTY.

A. Wycott vs. T. M. Fredsburg. Libel for freight. Ordered that the witnesses, E. P. Wall and Joseph Quash, not appearing in pursuance to the subpœ has served upon them, do show cause forthwith why they should not be attached for contempt.

The cases of Alburger & Co. et al, G. B. Kellum Thomas Kimball and C. A. French vs. the bark Kedar, of Philadelphia, were taken up, and the examination of witnesses continued until the court adjourned.

A "FENCE" BROKEN UP .- Yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock, Frank Robinson, Joe Young, Cresar Grant and Robert Sweeney, four old offend ers, were arrested in their dens and taken to the Detective office, on a charge of burglary and larceny. The numerous robberies committed of late had put the officers on the alert, and suspicion had been for some time entertained of a certain locality and parties to whom one of the robberies had been traced. On the night in question, Lieutenant Philippy and Officers Truall, Davis and Burke, Proceeded to two houses in Chinquapin lane, on the Meeting street road, near Payne's bridge, and placing two of their number at the back, the others entered the house. The quartette of rogues were surprised in their slumbers, and arrested before they were well awake. A strict search, instituted at once, rewarded the finders with a large quantity of articles of feminine apparel, among which were saveral dresses, balmoral skirts, &c., and other plunder of considerable value. Among the odds and ends was a book of hymns and psalms, with the name "W. L. Mouzon" printed in gilt letters on the back. One of the prisoners nmediately confessed and turned State's evidence. He states that the house is the regular "fence" of a large gang, where they deposit all the plunder they gather in the city. His statement implicates other parties engaged in the purchase and sale of the stolen property, who will be arrested shortly. The whole four are old rogues and jall birds. After a preliminary hearing be for the Mayor, they were turned over to the State for prosecution.

SYSTEMATIC ROBBERY.-James Geddes, John Peronneau and Samuel Graham were brought before the Mayor vesterday morning, charged with Presbyterian Church, and should have been so ac. King street. From time to time during the last flour, bacon, iron wares, &c., and will be dismonth these gentlemen had missed various arti cles from their establishment, but a larger haul than usual on Saturday last compelled them to have recourse to the captain of the police. The latter appointed Sergeant Reed and Officer Nipson to attend to the matter, and that night they arrested Geddes and Peronneau. The former had been employed in the store for two years as a porter, and the latter is one of the journeymen tailors who works there. After having been arrest ed, the two owned up to the robbery, and Geddes told where most of the missing property was to be found. The officers, along with Geddes, pro needed to Robb's lot, in King street, opposite Berresford, the place designated, in quest of the property. At this place they found a sort of eting-house filled with people engaged in preaching and praying. Having waited until the preaching was over, they demanded, the hidden lunder, and, Gedder having instructed them where it was to be found, itewas speedily delivered up. The confession of the two prisoners implicated the third, Samuel Graham, likewise an employee and journeyman tailor, who was ar rested next morning. The owners even are not aware of how much of their property has thus peen stolen from time to time. Several hundred dollars' worth has already been recovered, and there seems to be more coming. The stolen p operty consists of several pieces of fine ready-made clothing, and rolls of handsome blue beaver and proadcloth, worth at least eight or ten dollars a yard. After an examination before the Mayor, the prisoners were turned over to the State for prosecution as soon as the nature of their crime was understood. Great credit is due to Sergeant Reed and Officer Nipson for the skilful and efficient manner in which they handled this affair.

> THE STEAMSHIP CUBA DISABLED .- Yesterday orenoon a propeller steamship was seen coming into port, which attracted much attention from the careen which she had, and which was so de cided as to induce the lilea that she was the victim to some accident. On her approach to the wharf she proved to be the steamship (propeller, Cuba, Captain Dukehart, of the New Orleans and Baltimore line. It appeared that on Sunday morning, the 22d instant, while she was about one hundred and twenty miles east of this port, and running nearly a northeast course, just before 2 A. M. a brig was observed near by, H. Lowry, and to Mr. John J. Jackson, purser, as standing the same way. From some unknown cause the vessel soon changed her direction and bore down immediately upon the steamer, and before the latter could change her position, she was struck with terrific violence on the port side, nearly midships, the bowsprit making a large opening, and lower down where the blow from the stem was received the planks were badly crushed, the copper torn up, and a fearful crew, by their prompt and decisive action, tended hole made below the water-line. At this moment the ship was in the most critical condition; and nothing but the utmost coolness and good management could, save her from sinking. The captain and officers immediately had everything movable placed on the starboard side, giving her a decided list and putting much of the damage above the water line; blankets and other articles were used at the critical point to stop the flow of water, and it was only after the ost strennous efforts, which were continued up to midnight on Sunday, that the ship was got into a condition promising safety, and which enabled her to reach this harbor yesterday. At one time the water had nearly reached the fires, and the prospect for saving the steamer seemed gloomy enough. She has on board i valuable cargo of New Orleans sugars, part of which has probably been injured. Carpenters were working on her yesterday, and her repairs tindsr the general new schedule, which went into operation yesterday. The Northern mails due last evening failed altogether, and the Co lumbia train on the South Carolina Railroad had not arrived up to ten o'clock last night. ACCIDENT .- Owing to some misarrangement of the switch at the entrance of the South Carolina Railroad depot last evening, the engine of the Augusta passenger train ran off the track, leaving the train across the entrance. This com pelled the down train, which arrived on time, to pack up to Chinquapin lane, where the passengers rot out. There was no damage done.

BITTEN BY A. DOG .- Richard Robinson was perambulating East Bay street on Sunday after noon, accompanied by a large Newfoundland dog. In a spirit of mischlef he set the dog on one Alfred Paul, who was caught and bitten in one or two places. The matter was reported to the Mayor, who yesterday sentenced Robinson to pay afine of $5 or go to the House of Correction for FINED FOR AN ASSAULT .- James Vincent was brought yesterday morning before Trial Justice Mackey, charged with an assault upon W. J. Bradford, in a dredge-boat on Stono River. After a trial he was found guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of $10 or go to jail for twenty days. Two other parties, against whom warrants had been issued for the same offence, were discharged, the evidence being insufficient to establish their guilt.

SINGING AND SHOUTING .- On Sunday night Mary O'Brien, after sundry potations, seated herself on a door step in Meeting street and gave vent to her elated feelings in loud singing, varied at intervals with whooping and shouting. A po liceman, with no ear for music, escorted her to the Guardhouse and locked her up. She interviewed the Mayor yesterday morning, and, after short conversation, left for the House of Correction, where she will spend the next ten days.

LATEST DEVELOPMENT OF THE OATS FURORE On Saturday evening, Samuel Johnson, one of the employees at the corner of Chalmers and State strects, attempted to appropriate a small bag e oats. Samuel was arrested in the act, and take to the Guardhouse, where he spent that night and the following day. Yesterday morning he appeared before the Mayor, but the owner of the stolen property declined to prosecute. In consideration of the return of the property, and a promise of the best of behavior in the future. Samuel was discharged, and went back to his work not very enthusiastic on the oats question

THE SEA ISLAND COTTON MARKET .- The folowing extract from a letter dated at Savannah, January 21, has been received by a prominen cotton house here : "We have to report a strong and active market for sea islands—it has extended to all grades, from medium to fine Floridas There is a strong feeling here that the sea island crop will not exceed 14,500 bales." The receipts of sea islands and Floridas at Savannah were, up to the above date:

Season 1869-70 to January 19......bags..10,09 eason 1870-71 to January 19...... 3,212

THE NIAGARA FAIR .- The fair of the Niagara Fire Engine Company opened last evening, at the Military Hall, with every promise of a complete success. The large hall was gracefully decorated with moss and evergreens, and a continuous line of tables and booths ran around the entire extent. There was a handsome display of articles both in the fancy and culinary line, and the general appearance of the fair reflected credit on the industry and taste of the managers. A large number of visiters assembled at an early hour in the evening, and, aided by the inspiring airs of the Chicora Cornet Band, the first evening closed in a pleasant and profitable manner.

THE PHILADELPHIA STEAM LINE .- The steam ships of this line have had to encountervery heavy ice in the D-laware during the past three weeks and some delays have occurred, but the worst is now over and we hope to hear soon of the Delaware bay and river being free of ice. The steamship Everman, unavoidably delayed, reached her pier on Sunday evening, discharged her cargo, and sailed on Monday evening for Philadelphia with a good freight, consisting of six hundred and odd packages of cotton, rice, domestics, &c. The steamstealing dry go ds from the well-known firm of ghip Virginia, of the same line, sailed from Phila-Menke & Muller, drapers and merchant tailors, on delphia on Saturday, with a large cargo of grain, patched on Saturday next, at noon, taking Bo ton freight on liberal terms.

THE IRON LINE TO NEW YORK .- The improvenents effected in the wheels of the elegant steam ship South Carolina prove most satisfactory, after seven months' trial in severe winter weather. Captain Beckett arrived at his wharf here at sunise on Sunday, after a quick voyage, and sails hence on Thursday. The palatial steamship Georgia, Captain Crowell, undoubtedly the fine appointed passenger steamer on the Atlantic oast, sailed from here on Friday last, and delivered her cargo on Monday in New York, after a rapid run out. We learn that several lots of Maon cotton went forward by the Georgia on a time delivery, which was successfully accomplished. The advantages of speed, elegant saloons and passenger accommodations on deck, will attract a large flow of travel to the Iron Line the coming spring and summer.

WHO STOLE THE TRUNK ?- Thursday night, about 9 o'clock, a man entered the second story of the dwelling house of Mr. McFall, at the corner of Meeting and Society streets, and coolly carried off a large trunk and lot of clothing. The thief was met at the front door by Mr. McFall's son, who asked him what he was doing with the trunk. Upon replying that it had been left there by mistake and he was removing it, he was allowed to roceed. The alarm was given as soon as the young man entered the house, and the third was immediately pursued. He disappeared, however. in Society street, and nothing has since been heard of him or the trunk. John alias Granville Brown was arrested yesterday evening on suspicion, he having been seen for some time previous prowling around the neighborhood. Brown is held for examination.

A CARD.

ON BOARD STEAMSHIP CUBA, AT SEA, SUNDAY EVENING, January 22. The undersigned, passengers on board the steamship Cuba, of the Baltimore and Havana Steamship Company's line, take this method of publicly expressing their gratitude to Captain John M. Dukchart; to the chief officer, Mr. David well as the crew of said vessel, for the coolness bravery and efficiency exhibited by them during the collision which occurred this morning with an unknown brig. Occurring as it did at an unusual hour, (under circumstances beyond the coutro) of any one attached to the steamer,) we feel that it is but just for each and all of us to testify that Captain Dukehart, ably assisted by his officers and to allay the fears on the part of the passengers Even when hope scemed hopeless, and when it appeared inevitable that the ship must be abandoned did Captain Dukehart and his crew ex hibit the same indomitable spirit under the disressing circumstances. And we deem it but just to say that to this alone are we indebted for the safe delivery of the ship. We cannot conclude without adding our testimony to the zeal and ability displayed by Chief Engineer Chapman and assistants. In subscribing our names as passengers of the
